An Step to Promote A Culture of Tolerance, Brotherhood, Human Rights and Peace
"The Holy Quran instructs Muslims to refrain from reviling the Gods and deities of other religions: "And do not insult those they invoke other than Allah, lest they insult Allah in enmity without knowledge. Thus, we have made pleasing to every community their deeds. Then to their Lord is their return and He will inform them about what they used to do."

"Allah is One, there is no deity except Him. Therefore, do not worship besides Him. And I shall not worship what you worship. And I shall not worship what you worshiped. And nor you shall worship what I worship. For you, your religion. And for me my religion."

"I am a human like you, I have the same needs. So I pray to Allah to let me fall upon the path of religion and guidance."

"The Holy Quran advocates religious freedom: "I worship not that you worship. And nor you worship what I worship. And I shall not worship what you worshiped. And nor you shall worship what I worship. For you, your religion. And for me my religion."
"You are free; you are free to go to your temples. You are free to go to your mosques or to any other places of worship in this State of Pakistan. You may belong to any religion, sect, caste or creed—that has nothing to do with the business of the state." — Mohammad Ali Jinnah (Quaid e Azam)

"The best among you is the one who doesn’t harm others with his tongue and hands." — Prophet Muhammad (Peace be Upon Him)
